

“If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God.”

This quote from St Peter in the second reading seems like a good thought to begin a reflection on our situation today. We are suffering in an attempt to protect ourselves and others from a deadly virus. This is a good thing.

But how is our patience holding out? According to Peter, we need the grace of God to be patient in suffering. He reminds us that “to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you”.

We are now in the middle of the Easter Season, a season of joy and rejoicing. Perhaps we can turn our impatience and suffering into a joyful waiting by enjoying the beauty of the season. Trees are beginning to sprout and spring flowers are in bloom.

Or maybe we would enjoy picking up a hobby that we once enjoyed but laid aside in the business of life. Or is there a book you always wanted to read?

We can also bring ourselves joy by helping someone else who is finding the waiting a burden.

Let us not waste the precious time God has given us, but let us continue to pray for each other until we meet again in Church.

Agnes
