

Today's scripture passages contain very appropriate messages for today. The first reading describes the Apostles' need for help and the beginning of the ministry of Deacons. Over the past many years, we at OLA have been blessed with the presence of two faithful deacons, Deacon Phil who continues to work among us, and Deacon Mike who was with us for many years. This is a great example of the continuity of the Church since the time of the Apostles.

The second reading reminds us that, to a lesser degree, all the Baptized share in the priesthood of Christ:

"Let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ."

Finally, in the Gospel, Jesus tells us "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him."

Thinking about these scenes from the early Church will help us to keep our faith forefront in our minds during these difficult times. Remember the words of Jesus "Do not let your hearts be troubled".

Let us continue to pray for each other until we meet again in Church. Agnes
